

ACTIVE VOICE TENSES	Affirmative	Negative	Interrogative	Negative Interrogative
Present (simple)	I work	I do not work (I don't)	Do I work?	Do I not work? (Don't I)
Present continuous	I am working (I'm)	I am not working (I'm not)	Am I working?	Am I not working? (Aren't I)
Present perfect	I have worked (I've)	I have not worked (I haven't)	Have I worked?	Have I not worked? (Haven't I)
Present perfect continuous	I have been working	I have not been working	Have I been working?	Have I not been working?
Present conditional	I would work (I'd)	I would not work (I wouldn't, I'd not)	Would I work?	Would I not work? (Wouldn't I)
Present continuous conditional	I would be working	I would not be working	Would I be working?	Would I not be working?
Present perfect conditional	I would have worked	I would not have worked	Would I have worked?	Would I not have worked?
Present perfect continuous conditional	I would have been working	I would not have been working	Would I have been working?	Would I not have been working?
Past (simple)	I worked	I did not work (I didn't)	Did I work?	Did I not work? (Didn't I)
Past continuous	I was working	I was not working (I wasn't)	Was I working?	Was I not working? (Wasn't I)
Past perfect	I had worked (I'd)	I had not worked (I hadn't, I'd not)	Had I worked?	Had I not worked? (Hadn't I)
Past perfect continuous	I had been working	I had not been working	Had I been working?	Had I not been working?
Future	I will work (I'll)	I will not work (I won't)	Will I work?	Will I not work? (Won't I)
Future continuous	I will be working	I will not be working	Will I be working?	Will I not be working?
Future perfect	I will have worked	I will not have worked	Will I have worked?	Will I not have worked?
Future perfect continuous	I will have been working	I will not have been working	Will I have been working?	Will I not have been working?

The contracted forms of the auxiliaries are given in parentheses at the first mention in the column.

The tenses are named here according to their construction. Please note that the names of these tenses vary considerably according to author.

- Simple tenses have a one word verb.
- Continuous tenses are formed with a present participle ending in 'ing'.
- The present perfect = the present simple of 'have' + a past participle + other elements (i.e. 'ing' form for the continuous tenses)
- Conditional tenses contain a conditional verb; 'would' is used in these examples.
- Future tenses contain a future verb; 'will' is used in these examples.